WHAT DOES FIRST BANCORP DO WITH YOUR PERSONAL INFORMATION?

Why?
Financial companies choose how they share your personal information. Federal law gives consumers the right to limit some but not all sharing. Federal law also requires us to tell you how we collect, share, and protect your personal information. Please read this notice carefully to understand what we do.

What?
The types of personal information we collect and share depend on the product or service you have with us. This information can include:
- Social Security number and transaction history
- Account balances and credit history
- Payment history and overdraft history

How?
All financial companies need to share customers’ personal information to run their everyday business. In the section below, we list the reasons financial companies can share their customers’ personal information; the reasons First Bancorp chooses to share; and whether you can limit this sharing.

Who we are

Who is providing this notice?

First Bancorp means the following institutions: First Bank (also d/b/a FB Wealth Management), First Bank Insurance Services, Inc., First Troy SPE, LLC, Magnolia Financial, Inc., and SBA Complete, Inc.

What we do

How does First Bancorp protect my personal information?

To protect your personal information from unauthorized access and use, we use security measures that comply with federal law. These measures include computer safeguards and secured files and buildings.

Additionally, our employees are trained to comply with our privacy standards and policies and are committed to safeguarding customer information.

How does First Bancorp collect my personal information?

We collect your personal information, for example, when you
- open an account or apply for a loan
- use your credit or debit card or pay your bills
- apply for insurance

We also collect your personal information from others, such as credit bureaus, affiliates, or other companies.

Why can’t I limit all sharing?

Federal law gives you the right to limit only
- sharing for affiliates’ everyday business purposes—information about your creditworthiness
- affiliates from using your information to market to you
- sharing for nonaffiliates to market to you

State laws and individual companies may give you additional rights to limit sharing. See below for more on your rights under state law.

What happens when I limit sharing for an account I hold jointly with someone else?

Your choices will apply to everyone on your account.

Definitions

Affiliates
