

First Bank

Card Rewards Program Terms and Conditions

General

- Eligibility is restricted to current First Bank's Rewards eligible debit and credit card holders at First Bank in good standing.
- First Bank's Rewards Program and benefits are offered at the sole discretion of First Bank, who reserves the right to cancel, change or temporarily suspend the program at any time without notice. Cancellation or suspension could result in the forfeiture of earned points and a change in the redemption of any outstanding rewards.
- First Bank reserves the right to amend terms and conditions at any time without notice. In addition, the bank can amend available rewards, levels of points required for a specific reward, level of points earned for purchases and eligible level of points allowed in a given period.
- First Bank reserves the right to disqualify any cardholder from participating in the program and to invalidate all rewards points for abuse, fraud or any violation of the program terms and conditions at its sole discretion.
- All rewards are subject to availability. Certain restrictions apply. First Bank's Rewards Program is void where prohibited by federal, state, or local law.
- By accepting and using program rewards, the accountholder or any other beneficiary of program rewards release, discharge, and hold harmless First Bank, MasterCard, Breakaway Rewards, the program administrator, and their respective subsidiaries, affiliates, employees, officers, directors, successors and assigns from all claims, damages or liability including but not limited to physical injury or death, arising out of participation in the program.
- The cardholder is responsible for any personal tax liability related to participation in the program or as a result of points earned and/or redeemed.
- First Bank provides debit card rewards points for only true Signature or Debit used as a Credit transaction. PIN-less debit transactions enable merchants to accept debit cards for payment without requiring customers enter a PIN (personal identification number). These transactions are truly "PIN" transactions as they are identified as "Debit" transactions. Signature transactions which requires a signature are identified as a "Credit Transaction". PIN-less or Debit transactions are determined by the merchant. First Bank has no control over how the merchant decides to identify the transaction

Earning Points from Qualified Purchases

- Once enrolled in the program, the cardholder will accumulate points as follows, based upon card type:
 - Platinum Debit Card: 1 point for every three U.S. dollars in qualified net purchases.
 - Business Debit Card: 1 point for every three U.S. dollars in qualified net purchases.
 - Platinum Rewards Credit Card: 1 point for every 1 U.S. dollars in qualified net purchases.
 - World Business Rewards Card: 1.25 points for every 1 U.S. dollars in qualified net purchases.
- A "Net Purchase" is defined as the dollar value of goods and services purchased with the card after the enrollment date, minus any credits, returns, or other adjustments as reflected on the monthly account statements, excluding, card-related service charges, fees, and/or unauthorized charges.
- Points are earned for each net dollar spent for non-PIN retail purchases (gross retail purchases less any returns or credits). Convenience checks, unauthorized charges, lottery tickets, traveler's checks from a non-financial institution, foreign currency, bail bonds and fees of any kind are excluded.
 - Points earned for returned purchases will be subtracted from your point totals.
 - Earned points are calculated on actual dollars spent. Points are rounded to nearest whole point.

Pooling – Personal Accounts

- Personal/consumer cardholders may combine or "pool" the points earned from their rewards eligible debit or credit card account(s) together with any other cardholder's rewards eligible debit or credit card account(s) enrolled in our Rewards Program.
- Requests for Pooling with friends and family must be via online with specific account information required in order to set up or join the pool. All pooling requests must be completed using the Rewards Center website.
- To participate in Pooling, all cardholders must acknowledge the Program rules for pooling points in the Program, and fully understand that there is an inherent risk for cardholders when choosing to pool all of the points they have earned individually on the pooled account(s) with others in the pool.

- The originator of the pool (Administrator) may assign who will have access to view and redeem points from any of the accounts linked in their pool. Accounts designated as “authorized user” cannot redeem points.
- All points accrued, redeemed and expired will be determined based on a first-in first out (FICO) accounting convention, regardless of the individual cardholder that has requested the actual redemption.

Pooling – Business Accounts

- Requests for Pooling of business accounts may be facilitated by a First Bank Card Services representative by calling 866-256-2273, weekdays from 8:30 am – 5:00 pm (Eastern).
- Business cardholders enrolled in our Rewards Program can roll-up/combine points earned from their eligible debit or credit card account(s) together with any other eligible debit or credit cardholder account(s) enrolled in our Rewards Program.
- Business accounts can be pooled with personal/consumer accounts.
- The Business may assign who will have access to view and redeem points from any of the accounts linked in their pool. Accounts designated as “Authorized User” cannot redeem points.
- When Pooling is set-up for Business debit and credit cards, a Administrator must be assigned to manage the pool of accounts.
- A Business may choose to have some accounts retain individual access to view and redeem points outside the broader pool.
- If a Business account with Rewards is not designated to pool, the account will operate by default as a standalone account.
- All points accrued, redeemed and expired will be determined based on a first-in first out (FICO) accounting convention, regardless of the individual cardholder that has requested the actual redemption.

Point Redemption

- Points must be posted to the account in order to be redeemed.
- To redeem points for rewards, cardholders may call 866-605-2943, 8:00 am – 8:00 pm (Central) Monday – Friday or use the rewards website located through www.localfirstbank.com/rewards
- Points are valid for three years (Consumer and Business Debit Cards and Consumer Credit Cards). There is no expiration for Business Credit Card points.
- These points have no cash value and are not transferable except as used in accordance with the Terms and Conditions of the program and reward suppliers.

Airline Tickets – Traditional Travel

- All dollar-off award terms and conditions are based on the rules of the airline fare/ticket booked.
- Tickets will be issued within 24 hours of booking and will be electronic.
